

Friday, October 20, 2006

Nurturing Center receives honor

The Nurturing Center was honored with a Certificate of Appreciation Award from the Violence Free Crisis Line on Oct. 2 at Northridge Lutheran Church during the annual Domestic Violence Vigil.

The award recognized the organization's Safe Havens program and its continued commitment to ensure that all children are safe during visitation and exchange between parents.

Both agencies are dedicated to ending family violence and creating safety nets for families who may be in crisis in the Flathead Valley.